last Friday night fixed the tax levy for the present year. A levy of 75 cents on each $100 worth of property is made to be apportioned as follows: 20 cents for street and sidewalk improvements, 22 cents for lights, 23 cents for water and 10 cents for general purposes.

Miss Mary M. Cheser, of Polin was tried before a Jury in Squire John H. Gordon's Court on last Thursday on the charge of obstructing a passway. The trial lasted nearly all day and many witnesses were examined and much interested manifested. The jury returned a verdict of "Not Guilty." W. D. Claybrook appeared for the Commonwealth and Mr. Charles Greene has received a letter and photograph from a young man in Oakland, Cal., with whom he worked while in that city telling some experiences in the recent earth quake disaster. The photograph gives a view of the store in which Mr. Greene worked. A part of the stone front of the building was demolished and fell inside of the building.

A Washington dispatch announces that William A. Waters has been nominated as Postmaster at Springfield. Mr. Waters' old term has been out for several months and he has been expecting his reappointment. There was no other applicant for the position. Mr. Waters has made such an excellent official and has given such general satisfaction that it would have been altogether useless for anyone else to try for the place.

Mr. John R. Walker, of this county suffered a serious accident on last Tuesday afternoon which will result in his losing his valuable stallion, Waco Dare, Jr.
Mr. Walker was on his way to the home of Mr. Will Clarke in Marion county and was riding his horse and driving some je-nests. As he was crossing the bridge on the Perryville pike across Pleasant Run he was having some trouble in getting the animals to cross and the horse which he was leading backed off of the embankment leading to the bridge and in the fall his hind leg was broken. Mr.
Walker after making some attempt to save the horse discovered it could not be done.
Waco Dare, Jr. was one of the finest bred stallions in the county and was valued at $900. Mr.
Walker's many friends will sym-patize with him in his loss.

Marriages.
Miss Minnie Mattingly and Miss Owen Durham, of Lancaster were married at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of the bride by Rev. W. H. Williams. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Robert Mattingly of the well known farmer of the Hills boro neighborhood and the groom is a rising young farmer of near Lancaster. The newly married couple left immediately for Lancaster where they will reside.

Mr. Hubert Kimberlin and Miss Iris Purdon two popular young people of the Texas neighborhood drove to Lebanon Tuesday where they took the train to Louisville with the announced intention of getting married. Miss Purdon is a daughter of Rev. R. L. Purdon while Mr. Kimberlin is a son of Mr. Jacob Kimberlin of Texas.
The elopement came as a surprise to their many friends.

Mr. Eugene Low and Miss Fannie Powers of the county were married in the county clerk's office Tuesday evening.
Rev. Williams of the Baptist church performed the ceremony.

Paint
Your house with a good paint, it protects the lumber; use a poor paint and it peels off taking with it the natural resistant coating of the wood itself.
Use Mastic Paint—it's best.

Richest Men in the World The richest men in the world can not have their kidneys replaced nor live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up the organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure for some time and it has cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." For sale by Red Cross

Fighting With Dynamite
Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed.
It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis, of Mt. Sterling, Iowa, "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure." S. B. at the Red

HIS REAPPEARANCE
Two American yeomen, a more inquiring race than exists among agriculturalists of any other region, had been seen from childhood upon upward.

Peter Price had remained unmarried. John Horner had taken a wife.
One evening Horner thus addressed his friend:

"Peter, though you mock at ghosts and the notion of the spirits of the deceased returning to visit the friends they have left behind and the scenes which were dear to them when in the flesh, I have never heard from you or any other person an argument which convinced me of the impossibility of such visits or even of the improbability of the souls of the departed being permitted to hover about places and persons deservingly near to them and of appearing and giving a salutary warning, either by signs or words, of approaching death and the necessity of due preparation."

"Peter," Horner laughed, and after knocking the ashes out of his pipe he thus addressed his friend:

"Give me the tobacco John. I never said it was not so. I only say I cannot comprehend how it can be. Give me a coal of fire. I cannot reach the coal of fire."

"There may be certainly do exist a great many things beyond our limited comprehension," said John, laughing the tongue. "When one or other of us has left this world perhaps the privilege may be granted." Horner paused.

"What do you mean?" asked Price.
"I am thinking," said Horner very deliberately, "that, as one of us will probably be removed before the other and have the knowledge I so thirst after given to him, he might be permitted to return and impart it to his friend."

"Very well, John Horner," said Peter, laughing. "I promise that if I go first I will come and tell you all about it.
I can, and John, you must promise the same neighborly office in regard to me if it is your first turn."

"I do," said Horner solemnly.

Here we drop the colloquy and proceed to the denouement of our story with as much brevity as possible, being convinced that brevity is the soul of a story as well as of wit.
